

New York State
Partnership
for Patients

NYSPFP ADE Webinar VTE and Anticoagulation Stewardship

March 16, 2020

A partnership of the Healthcare Association of New York State and the Greater New York Hospital Association

Agenda

Topic	Speaker
Welcome and Introduction	NYSPFP Staff Jon Salman
VTE Prevention Among Hospitalized Patients: Current Challenges and Opportunities for Improvement	Kurt (Charles) Mahan, PharmD, PhC, FCCP, FASHP Adjunct Associate Professor of Pharmacy, University of New Mexico Cardiac Critical Care Pharmacist, Presbyterian Healthcare Services Allison Burnett, PharmD, PhC, CACP Associate Clinical Professor, University of New Mexico College of Pharmacy Inpatient Antithrombosis Stewardship Service, University of New Mexico Hospital
Q&A and Next Steps	NYSPFP Staff Lynette Mancuso

NYSPFP Adverse Drug Events (ADE) and Venous Thromboembolism (VTE) Initiatives

- Purpose
 - To support hospitals' efforts
 - in the implementation of best practices to prevent ADE related to anticoagulants
 - in the implementation of standardized processes for the adoption of best practices to prevent VTE
- Goal
 - NYSPFP works with hospitals to reduce ADE and VTE events by 20%

New York State
Partnership
for Patients

Question & Answer

Resources

- NYSPFP Website
 - Educational Sessions
 - Optimizing Anticoagulation Care series – in-person and webinar sessions
 - Tools and Resources
 - Society of Hospital Medicine VTE Implementation Guide
 - Current standards
 - Reference materials
 - Anticoagulation FORUM

- <https://www.nyspfp.org/Members/Initiatives/BedsideSafety/AdverseDrugEvents/Tools.aspx>

- <https://www.nyspfp.org/Members/Initiatives/BedsideSafety/VT/Tools.aspx>