

EQIC Patient and Family Advisor Candidate Interviewing Tool

Date: _____ Candidate name: _____

Interviewed by: _____

Recommended Not recommended

Please verify that you have a completed application and that the candidate has reviewed any information you provided in preparation for the interview (including hospital overview, PFAC brochure, etc.).

Core questions

Rate answers according to how well the respondents' answers support their application for an advisor position.

- Excellent
- Good
- Fair
- Poor

Question	Comments	Rating
1. Can you share more about your interest in the position of patient and family advisor?
2. With what other teams/organizations in the community do you have affiliations?
3. Can you describe any challenges/ concerns you have encountered at the hospital?
4. What is your understanding of confidential communications?
5. What questions do you have about the hospital or the job of a patient and family advisor after reviewing the material provided?
6. Why do you think it would be important for a hospital to have a patient and family advisory council?
Additional comments:		